B-Movie Retro Danger!

In the year 1921 a field expedition in Egypt discovers the scary mummy of ancient Egyptian prince Im-Ho-Tep who was condemned and buried alive for sacrilege. Also found in the tomb is the Scroll of Thoth, which can bring the dead back to life. One night a young member of the expedition reads the Scroll out loud, and then goes insane

realizing that he has brought Im-Ho-Tep back to life. Ten years later, disguised as a modern Egyptian, the mummy attempts to reunite with his lost love, an princess who has been reincarnated into a beautiful young woman.

Just have a look at the foundry site of »die Typonauten« at MyFonts.com. MyFonts' review: Die Typonauten is an award-winning foundry founded in 2000, made up of designers Stefan Kroemer and Ingo Krepinsky. Their 39 styles in 6 families are fun, inventive designs — and amazing value too. Our favorites are: Toon Town; the Russian-themed Dimitri; and the splendid tattoo font, Singapur with delicious pics (mermaid, love-heart, skull, butterfly...) in an extra font. It allows color layering too. In fact all their families contain extra icon fonts, giving the user a palette of symbols in the same style as the letters. Evoking a particular style has never been so easy!
